Başur Höyük, Siirt, Turkey

Small carved stones unearthed in a nearly 5,000-year-old burial site could represent the earliest gaming tokens ever found. Found in a grave at Başur Höyük, a 820- by 492-foot mound near Siirt in southeast Turkey, the elaborate pieces consist of 49 small stones sculpted in different shapes and painted in green, red, blue, black and white.
